(2) Money included in the appropriations for community college operations under section 201(2) for local strategic value shall be allocated to each community college that certifies to the state budget director, through a board of trustees resolution on or before October 15, 2021, that the college has met 4 out of 5 best practices listed in each category described in subsection (3). The resolution shall provide specifics as to how the community college meets each best practice measure within each category. One-third of funding available under the strategic value component shall be allocated to each category described in subsection (3). Amounts distributed under local strategic value shall be on a proportionate basis to each college's fiscal year 2020-2021 operations funding. Payments to community colleges that qualify for local strategic value funding shall be distributed with the November installment payment described in section 206.	Adds reference to section 201e and updates dates	(2) The base operations amount and the added operations amount are distributed as follows:  (a) Subject to subdivision (c), 100% of the base operations amount is distributed to each community college in an amount determined by multiplying its FYES average by the FYES funding figure.  (b) Subject to subdivision (c), the added operations amount is distributed in equal allocations of $3,500,000.00 to each community college.	Updates dates and changes "shall" to "must"

		(c) The sum of the amounts distributed to a community college under subdivisions (a) and (b) is capped at 110% of its operation funding in fiscal year 2021-2022, not including any North American Indian tuition waiver reimbursement, and any amounts that would otherwise be distributed to community colleges in excess of this cap must instead be pooled together and redistributed using an iterative process to those community colleges that remain under the cap. The share redistributed to a community college that remains under the cap is determined by multiplying the community college's FYES average by a fraction, the numerator of which is the total amount pooled for redistribution and the denominator of which is the sum of all community colleges' FYES averages that are under the cap. (d) Community colleges with appropriation amounts lower than prior fiscal year operations appropriations receive additional funding to equal a 1% increase above prior fiscal year levels.	Does not include

(3) For purposes of subsection (2), the following categories of best practices reflect functional activities of community colleges that have strategic value to the local communities and regional economies: (a) For Category A, economic development and business or industry partnerships, the following: (i) The community college has active partnerships with local employers including hospitals and health care providers. (ii) The community college provides customized on-site training for area companies, employees, or both. (iii) The community college supports entrepreneurship through a small business assistance center or other training or consulting activities targeted toward small businesses. (iv) The community college supports technological advancement through industry partnerships, incubation activities, or operation of a Michigan technical education center or other advanced technology center. (v) The community college has active partnerships with local or regional workforce and economic development agencies. (b) For Category B, educational partnerships, the following: (i) The community college has active partnerships with regional high schools, intermediate school districts, and career-tech centers to provide instruction through dual enrollment, concurrent enrollment, direct credit, middle college, or academy programs. (ii) The community college hosts, sponsors, or participates in enrichment programs for area K-12 students, such as college days, summer or after-school programming, or Science Olympiad.	Unchanged	Section deleted	Unchanged

			Adds new subsection:  (5) Payments made under section 201 for performance funding and 1-time performance funding for fiscal year 2022-2023 must be made only to a public community college that certifies to the state budget director by the last business day of August that its board will not adopt an increase in tuition and fee rates for in-district students for the 2022-2023 academic year that is greater than 5.0% or $226.00, whichever is greater. As used in this subsection:  (a) "Fee" means any board authorized fee that will be paid by more than 1/2 of all in-district students at least once during their enrollment at a public community college. A community college increasing a fee that applies to a specific subset of students or courses shall provide sufficient information to prove that the increase applied to that subset will not cause the increase in the average amount of board-authorized total tuition and fees paid by in-district students in the 2022-2023 academic year to exceed the limit established in this section.

			(b) "Tuition and fee rate" means the average of full-time rates paid by a majority of students in each class, based on an unweighted average of the rates authorized by the community college board and actually charged to students, deducting any uniformly rebated or refunded amounts, for the 2 semesters with the highest levels of full-time equated in-district enrollment during the academic year.
			(6) Community colleges that exceed the tuition and fee rate cap described in subsection (5) must not receive a planning or construction authorization for a state-funded capital outlay project in fiscal year 2022-2023 or 2023-2024. (7) Notwithstanding any other provision of this act, the legislature may at any time adjust appropriations for a community college that adopts an increase in tuition and fee rates for in-district students that exceeds the rate cap established in subsection (5).
