

The Michigan leader in community college partnerships and supporting the successful graduation of transfer students

Eastern Michigan University has 140 articulation agreements with 20 different community colleges spanning dozens of fields.

Of those 140 agreements:

- 127 are academic program agreements;
- 3 are honors agreements; and,
- 10 are reverse transfer agreements (which outline the process for a student who transferred to Eastern from a community college to earn an associate's degree from the community college based on additional coursework taken at EMU).

Eastern's top community college partners are:

- Washtenaw Community College (32 agreements)
- Henry Ford College (20 agreements)
- Macomb Community College (14 agreements)
- Schoolcraft College (12 agreements)
- Monroe County Community College (12 agreements)
- Oakland Community College (8 agreements)
- Wayne County Community College District (6 agreements)
- Eastern Michigan University also has articulation agreements with community colleges in Ohio, which helps attract out-of-state students to our state.

A full list of Eastern's articulation agreements with community colleges can be found on the articulation agreements page of the University's website:
