Date: April 27, 2021

The Detroit Parent Network is committed to advancing and advocating for an Equitable and Quality Education for all children. We are particularly focused on those that have been historically and continually marginalized with inadequate educational and other critical resources that hinder their academic and life success. On behalf of children and families throughout Metro-Detroit and across the State of Michigan, we would like to submit a card in SUPPORT WITH AMENDMENT to House Bill 4421.

Specifically, we urge the Committee to amend HB 4421 to strike Sec 11r. (10) and Sec. 11t (3)(a).

We do not wish to testify at this time.

We sincerely hope this concern will be addressed. We look forward to how DPN and other Education Equity advocates can assist the Legislators to make decisions that are fair and enable Michigan to move from the bottom of the nation in educational outcomes to being a state where all of Our children thrive!
