RE: Proration of School Funding - REVISED

Section 11 of the School Aid Act states that if appropriations exceed the amount available for expenditure from the School Aid Fund in any given year, the State must prorate payments to districts and intermediate school districts in order to eliminate the shortfall.

In a letter dated October 22, 2009 the State Treasurer estimated that the FY 2009-10 School Aid budget has a shortfall of $212 million. As a result, that same day, the State Budget Director gave notice to the legislature that the department will prorate payments as required by Section 11(3) of the School Aid Act. The proration will reduce a district's total state aid payment by approximately $127 per pupil, payments to ISDs by approximately $8.7 million, and payments to other non-district entities by approximately $1.6 million.

The Timeline

The legislature has 30 days or 6 session days (whichever is greater) from the date the notice is given to appropriate additional funds or reduce appropriations by reducing or eliminating specific programs in order to avoid a proration. Assuming a 30-day timeframe, the legislature would need to act by November 21, 2009, if a proration is to be averted. If no action is taken, schools and ISDs will see a reduction in their state aid payments.

The Impact on Programs

While the School Aid Act requires proration, it protects certain sections including the Proposal A guaranteed part of the foundation allowance, Headlee-mandated special education payments, school breakfast and lunch payments, Durant settlement payments, and renaissance zone reimbursements. The per pupil reduction is not a reduction in the foundation allowance but a reduction to a district's total state aid payment after adjusting for these protected items. Reductions to ISDs are made on a percentage basis estimated at 7.2% of an ISD's total state aid payment after adjusting for protected items.

For the estimated impact to individual districts and revised estimates for ISDs please see attachments.
