

CHANGING Lives CHANGING Communities

In 2020, Michigan's Centers for Independent Living . . .

Served 21,258 people with disabilities.

Educated 39,602 people about disability and the value of full-participation in society.

Transitioned 1,197 people out of nursing facilities in partnership with other providers.

7,770 independent living goals set.

Most commonly identified barriers to reaching independence are access to transportation

employment housing

assistive technology

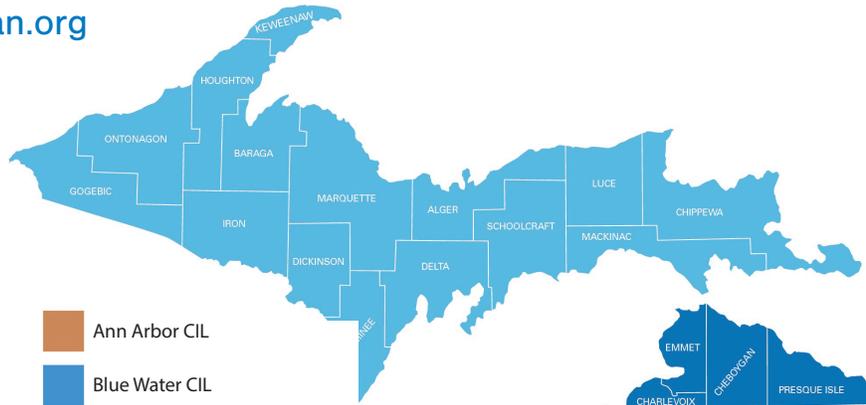

Chronic unemployment & dependence on public assistance cost the government approximately $1million per person from the ages of 18–60/yr.

For every GF/GP dollar invested in CILs in 2019, we returned $7. This translates into total taxpayer savings of $43 million.
